

Qatar Shooting and Archery Association is Hiring a Full-Time Skeet Coach

As part of its development plans and future objectives, the Qatar Shooting and Archery Association invites applications for the position of a Skeet Coach. The major task will be to train elite Qatari athletes and accompany them to achieve excellence at Gulf, Arab, Asian, international, and Olympic competitions.

Key tasks and responsibilities:

- 1) Select, train, and prepare Qatari elite-level athletes for international competitions at Gulf, Arab, Asian, international (World Cups and World Championships), and Olympic levels.
- 2) Collect data systematically and coordinate with the technical department for the purposes of athlete development and performance improvement.
- 3) Guide and mentor athletes at all age levels (youth, junior, and senior)
- 4) Guide and advise local coaches working with the Qatar Shooting and Archery Association.
- 5) Collaborate with the management and the technical department for overall planning and execution of the agreed plans.
- 6) Keep record of the athletes' performance .

Required qualifications

- A good command of English
- Proven successful coaching experience at a high-performance level, nationally and internationally (10 years at least).
- Be a holder of recognized / renowned coaching certificates.
- Proven in-depth knowledge of ISSF rules and regulations.
- Exceptional ability to analyze shooting technique and provide clear, effective instruction and feedback, with a proven ability to tailor trainings to the specific needs of each athlete when necessary.
- Demonstrated experience in designing and implementing training plans, including short, medium, and long-term planning.
- Ability to work with a team equipped with strong leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to motivate and inspire athletes of varying ages and skill levels.

Benefits

- A very competitive salary with a dynamic bonus scheme and other benefits.

How to apply

Interested coaches must send their application letter with the supporting documents including certificates and a detailed CV to the following address: brahims@olympic.qa